

FACULTY AGENDA ITEM NO. 13-12

Date: August 26, 2013

Submitted by: Kathy Menzie, ext. 1865

Description:

Changing the minor in Communication by removing several course requirements and adding three upper division communication courses. The minor will require CN101 and CN150 and then three upper division courses, chosen in consultation with a Communication faculty member.

Rationale:

The minor has been 18 hours requiring CN 101 and CN150, then three hours from skills courses and three hours from theory course and three elective hours. This was confusing for both advisers and students. Some theory classes were not offered frequently, making it difficult for students to find appropriate courses. In addition, in the future the department plans to eliminate the difference between skills and theory courses, so it would not be possible for students to fulfill the minor as written. The change simplifies the requirements.

Financial Implications: none

Proposed Effective Date: Fall 2013

Request for Action: Approval by AAC/FAC/FS/Gen Fac, etc
