

Dr. Arthur Fletcher

WATCHDOG FOR IBIONY - APRIL 1971 U. S. LABOR

Arthur A. Fletcher, assistant secretary of labor, headed up Office of Contract Compliance hearings into the explosive 1969 summer confrontations between blacks and white representatives of the Chicago building trades industry. He suspended 17 contractors for failing to hire a representative number of minority workers.

Arthur Fletcher oversees some 86 million workers