The Honorable George H.W. Bush

Dear Mr. President:

I hope that you and Mrs. Bush are doing well. I am pleased to share that Bernyce and I remain spiritually blessed. Like you, my schedule remains busy but the pace has slowed considerably over the years.

Enclosed is a letter extending an invitation for you to "Roast and Toast" me at an event scheduled for Friday, June 27, 2003 from 6:30-10:00 p.m. I have also included a program book from the Ambassador Awards Luncheon hosted by Boardroom Bound®, who will also host the upcoming event for me.

I thought you'd appreciate knowing the way we exposed to the Boardroom Bound audience of approximately 300 guests, the relationship between you the Former President, Mrs. Bush and the Bush family, and myself.

As you can see from the enclosed program, your cover letter had more than honorable mention, it was the centerpiece of the program. The Mistress of Ceremony read the letter with a sense of great pride and enthusiasm as a means of introducing me to the audience. When I was called to the podium to accept the Lifetime Achievement Award, that introduction had set the stage for the brief remarks I made.

My remarks focused on our relationship and the exceptional contribution your Administration made to the country during the Bush Administration. The impact of my brief remarks brought the audience to their feet and it was the topic of discussion.

The audience was so moved by our relationship that we feel certain you will have a powerful impact, not only powerful, but a lasting impact if you participate in the upcoming "Roast and Toast" for me.

George, it would be an exceptional honor if you are able to join me, for our journey is coming to a close. Please give our warm regards to Mrs. Bush.

Take good care of yourself. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Respectfully,

Arthur A. Fletcher
