Empty Chair Attack...

Republican Art Fletcher says Democratic Lt. Gov. John Cherberg doesn't spend enough time in his state office.

To underscore the point, Fletcher's advertising agency sent a photographer to Olympia to photograph Cherberg's empty chair.

But the photographer never got past the office's locked door.

That was fine with Haydon. He said:

"It just emphasizes our point that the lieutenant governor is rarely in his working office."

Cherberg told reporters that he was out fulfilling speaking engagements at the time.
