

*For You,
Grandmother*

"Grandchildren Do Not Realize"

With Many Warm and Loving Wishes

A grandchild can't quite comprehend till many years have passed How warm a grandma's love can be or how long it can last — Her wisdom and her patience as an understanding guide, Her tenderness and thoughtfulness, her never-ending pride.

But a grandchild who grows up with all the joy a grandma brings Will someday come to realize two very special things — There couldn't be a friend who's been more caring from the start — And nothing could be deeper than the love in Grandma's heart.

*Thinking of you with love on Mother's Day, Grandmother... of all the kindness you share
and the happiness you've given — and wishing you countless joys today, tomorrow, and always.*

Love Cinna
