Fletcher Is First Speaker

The First Christian Church, Third and Washington, Kennewick, has scheduled Art Fletcher, candidate for lieutenant governor, as the first speaker in a series titled, "Urban Crisis".

The theme of the program is "Reconciliation," with the hope that the church will become more actively involved in the problems of the world as they see the need.

"Urban Crisis" will have a knowledgeable speaker of areas of crisis on alternate Sundays, with individual group analysis.

Fletcher, a former professional football player, Hanford employe and now political candidate, will speak at the First Christian Church, Kennewick, on Oct. 13 at 9:45 a.m.
