

A Resource For Independent Thinkers

The history of every country begins in the heart of a woman or a man.
-- Willa Cather

Racial Issues

Unless otherwise stated, all facts and figures are for the United States, and are current as of April of 2000. Every statistic from a given year was chosen based on availability, and not to slant the results by singling out a specific year that was different from others. The category headings do not state or imply facts. They are used for organizational purposes only.
