Letter to the Editor:

"COMPLIANCE 2000"--OMINOUS TRUMPET?

"People don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care." (anonymous) "nothing new under the sun." (Eccl.1:9)

What about the Internal Revenue Service plan to construct a massive computer database called "COMPLIANCE 2000", Larry Faulkner, Executive (ph. 202-622-6900)? Why not call him and verify the following?

"COMPLIANCE 2000" will store information on everyone in the country, or in their words, "Any individual who has business or financial activities." This system will collect information from other federal agencies, state and local authorities, private and commercial organizations, media reports and "informants and third Party information."

Every time you fill out a form with your name and/or social security number (or phone number), the IRS plans to have that information in their database. (Might the information gained through the Wiretap Access Bill make even more information available to "our father who art in Washington?")

This system is exempt from the Privacy Act of 1974 (as amended) so the agency doesn't need permission to gather information, isn't required to let you see what information it has on you and, likewise, doesn't need to correct false information it may have.

Senator David Pryor (D.Ark.) is a member of the Senate sub committee on the IRS. He sent a letter to the IRS because of concerns that this would, in fact, invade people's privacy unconstitutionally.

You know...it seems like one must be able to put 2 and 2 together just to get any idea of what's going on in the government in most cases--not so with this one!! It's obvious to any one reading about this in the "Federal Register", Tuesday, 20 December, 1994--pages 65573-65575, that there is something insidious going on. There has been absolutely nothing about this sinister, cunning, total abrogation of We the People's inalienable (UNALIENABLE), or natural rights to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness even whispered in the establishment media!! One wonders why, doesn't one?

WAKE UP AMERICA!! WAKE UP PREACHERS--"Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth". (Isaiah 21:6) AMEN It's in the BOOK and that's the way that is.

sincerely in CHRIST, Pastor Jesse Cannell, Retired
