

THE PRESIDENT'S WORDS
STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE
February 6, 1985

Excerpts

"We are here to speak for millions in our inner cities who long for real jobs, safe neighborhoods, and schools that truly teach. We are here to speak for the American farmer, the entrepreneur, and every worker in industries fighting to modernize and compete. ...

"... It is time to liberate the spirit of enterprise in the most distressed areas of our country.

"This Government will meet its responsibility to help those in need. ... all minorities will not have full and equal power until they have full economic power.

"We have repeatedly sought passage of enterprise zones to help those in the abandoned corners of our land find jobs, learn skills, and build better lives. ... "Let us place new dreams in a million hearts and create a new generation of entrepreneurs by passing enterprise zones this year."

(Excerpts from Address by the President On The State of the Union, delivered February 6, 1985 - Underscoring added.)