To
Referring the above mentioned caption beside his name, he had this to say; "I was included ~~because~~ in that list of 100 because, throughout my adult life, weather, working in the private sector or serving as a public official in the national government, ~~I~~ ^{He} made a career out of seeking ways to help others find ways to help themselves." He then added the following;

"When I became a Department of Labor Assistant Secretary, ~~in~~ ⁻⁷² 1969, and issued the order that jump-started the Affirmative Action Enforcement Policy ^{that} expanded opportunities in the ^{Education} employment and business arena, I was simply demonstrating a public service strategy for helping find ~~many~~ ^{identify} many and varied ways ⁱⁿ throughout the economy, to help ~~others~~ ^{others} themselves.

~~Help~~ ^{Help} themselves. ^{do what GOD intended me to do} Coupled with that, I felt that ~~he~~ ^{he} was ~~being~~ ^{being} the ^{Kind of} ~~leader~~ ^{leader} ~~HE~~ ^{HE} ~~intended~~ ^{intended} me to do.

Given that during the past 32 plus years, Affirmative Action has worked and thus ^{-in doing so} " helped achieve many gains for African Americans, Women and Others", Dr Fletcher, now feels that the hour for him to become a ^{Full time} spiritual leader, to use his exact words, a Human Capital Evangelist, ^{more FOR} he now plans to spend the rest of ^{HIS} life doing what he has been doing for the past three decades; Helping others find ways to help themselves. That's why the motto at Victory Hall is:
