

OCT 1 - 1968

CLAMPIAN
Olympia, Wn.
Dir. D. 17.089

S.A.S.S.

Review
he, Wn.
88,524
S.A.S.S.

er Giving
Battle

Evans Spent 66

For Every Renomination Vote In The Primary

700

... attempt to ...
... job via the ...
... an executive ...
... Gov. Dan Evans ...
... about 66 cents for every per ...
... he convinced to renounce ...
... But Attorney General John O'Connell had to spend about $1.45 for each vote that gave Dan the Democratic nomination in that ... This year, despite having the advantage of being the incumbent, Evans' statement shows a total expense of $11,329,000. O'Connell spent $101,329 on Dan's campaign headquarters

... Under state law, candidates must file primary expenses but not those for the general election. The law does not affect the validity of the expense statement

... 600 was sent ... $550,000.
Other statements received by Monday in Kramer's office included:
U. S. Senator — Warren Magnuson, $206,823; Jack Metcalf, $208,257; Roy Felt, $2,428; Ralph Westlake, $1,250.
Congressional races by district:
1st — Thomas Petty, $2,271; Don Cole, $6,953.
2nd — Lloyd Meigs, $12,404.

8th — Eddie Karnes, $4,500; Floyd Hicks, $10,512.
7th — Robert Eberle, $2,300; Ernest Rhodefer listed $2.3 for his campaign for governor. Other state offices include: Lieutenant governor — Joe Cherberg, $4,924; Art ... $78,299.
Secretary of state — Tad ... $11,924; John McKee, $61,000.
Treasurer — Robert O'Brien, $9,048; Edwin Alexander, $2,000.
Auditor — Anne Sherman, $23.
Attorney General — Slade ... $25,400; Marvin ... $50,360; Donald Navoni, $78,000; Fred Dure, $55,863; John ... $20,528.
Superintendent of Public Instruction — Louis Bruns, $3,520.
Commissioner of public lands — Richard A. C. Green.
Insurance Commissioner — Gerald Sullivan, $19,121; Meyers, $3,805; Karl Hermann, $11,426; George Harper, $2,819.

The figures are from the candidates' statement of primary expenses filed with Secretary of State Lou Kramer. The per vote cost is based on unofficial returns from the September 17 primary.
Inflation also has struck the political world. In 1964, Evans would be spent $129,615 to win the

... He said he spent nothing for radio, but $70,814 for television. O'Connell listed $78,261 for billboard advertising, $50,747 for campaign headquarters and $30,972 for advertising agency services. Reversing his opposition, he claimed nothing for tele

... Evans' forces say the campaign will cost between $500,000-$600,000, but not approach the $1 million O'Connell claims Evans will spend. In May, O'Connell's staff said an original estimate for their campaign headquarters of $800,000 was sent ... $550,000.

Quarry, $6,000-$8,500 estimate; Wally Turner, $58,000; Mike Odell, $73,154.
3rd — R. C. McCoolley, $26,383; Wayne Adams, $5,000; Julia Butler Hansen, $4,104.
4th — Catherine May, $10,452.
5th — E. D. Foreman, $3,581; Richard Bond, $10,077; Thomas Foley, $2,778.

... $11,924; John McKee, $61,000.
Treasurer — Robert O'Brien, $9,048; Edwin Alexander, $2,000.
Auditor — Anne Sherman, $23.
Attorney General — Slade ... $25,400; Marvin ... $50,360; Donald Navoni, $78,000; Fred Dure, $55,863; John ... $20,528.
Superintendent of Public Instruction — Louis Bruns, $3,520.
Commissioner of public lands — Richard A. C. Green.
Insurance Commissioner — Gerald Sullivan, $19,121; Meyers, $3,805; Karl Hermann, $11,426; George Harper, $2,819.

... Kitch and 58 Trade C paid for, lected an nancing a "The ward." Commer ingham C