Our records show that you failed to answer, within 30 days of the date(s) of issuance, the following notice(s) of infraction issued to your vehicle in the District of Columbia. A penalty equal to the amount of the original fine was added to each ticket and is reported in the total amount due. If you fail to answer a notice of infraction within 60 days of the date it was issued, by either paying the full amount shown, by appearing for an in-person hearing, or by requesting mail adjudication, you are deemed to have admitted the commission of the infraction and a $5 default fee is added to the fine. This notice does not stop enforcement activity and your vehicle may be immobilized or impounded if two or more unpaid tickets are on your record.

Under District of Columbia law and the laws of most states, the registered owner of a vehicle is responsible for a citation issued to his/her vehicle even if the owner was not the operator at the time the citation was issued.

If you wish to admit liability for the ticket(s), please send your check or money order payable to the D.C. Treasurer. DO NOT SEND CASH. Write the ticket number(s), your plate number and state on your check or money order. Return the bottom portion of this notice with your payment. Returned checks are subject to electronic redeposit for the face amount and a returned check fee of $50. You may also remit payment by credit card via the internet at dmv.washingtondc.gov or by telephone at (202) 756-5835.
