Fletcher Asks For Debate 220

Art Fletcher, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, today asked his opponent, incumbent Lieutenant Governor John Cherberg, to participate in "at least a half dozen debates in major population centers throughout the state."

Fletcher said he had sent a letter requesting the debates to Cherberg at his office in Olympia, his office at KIRO Television and at his campaign office. "If Governor Dan Evans is willing to debate, then surely the incumbent Lieutenant Governor should be willing to do the same."
