Debate due on channel

Television viewers who are able to receive the educational station on Channel 4 will have the opportunity to view a political program tonight at 8 o'clock.

Incumbent Lt. Governor John Cherberg and Republican challenger Art Fletcher will explain their positions on a variety of topics. The hour-long program will also examine the background and political experience of each candidate.

This is the second of five programs dealing with state-wide political races. In succeeding weeks the programs will deal with the Attorney General, U.S. Senate and Governor races.
