

NAACP CONVENTIONEERS!

Art Fletcher, the father of the Affirmative Action Enforcement Movement, is here. He is appearing as a panelist during the plenary session on Affirmative Action scheduled for 9:00 AM to 12:00 noon on Wednesday morning. Art Fletcher also has a vendor's booth at the convention hall. He can be found at Booth 32. He is selling his 30-minute video:

“AFFIRMATIVE ACTION By THE ORIGINAL SOURCE”

- “Affirmative Action — The Real Truth,” is a 30-minute video that contains the facts about Affirmative Action.
- Affirmative Action is the employment, business, and Education Equity Opportunity Enforcement program that changed, upgraded and improved America's workforce and workplace culture forever.
- Art Fletcher is the 71-year-old civil rights pioneer who jump-started the mid-20th century Equal Opportunity Enforcement movement.
- Don't miss this opportunity to meet him, buy his video, and get his autograph.
- When you buy “Affirmative Action — The Real Truth” video, you will be the owner of a treasured historical documentary and a prized collector's item.
- Besides having the facts about Affirmative Action from the original source, you will have a civil rights collector's item.
- You will also have the autograph of an Economic Opportunity pioneer who is ranked as a civil rights giant and a living legend by his peers.
- This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to meet an original source, so don't miss it. He can be found at Booth 32. Introduce yourself to a living legend.
