Pasco city councilman who advocates a "self-help, cooperative" plan to induce non-whites to participate in community affairs.
 The Action for Washington group broke into wild applause when headquarters received one state-wide election report showing Fletcher slightly ahead of Lt. Gov. Cherberg in total votes.
 Gov. Evans, Fletcher and Gorton appeared briefly on a podium inside the headquarters. Evans, commenting on the crowd to Gorton, said:

 "This is a big crowd, almost bigger than the number of votes cast for you."
 Gorton grinned.
 Gorton, House majority floor leader, and five Democrats had to share the modest voter turnout in their quest for attorney general.
 The group were later joined by Gerald Sullivan, Republican leader in the race for State Insurance Commissioner.
