Candidates' Rally Set By GOP Club

A candidates' rally will mark the 212th consecutive monthly meeting of the 29th District Republican Club Wednesday at Brad's Restaurant, 9201 Pacific Ave.

Dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. followed by the speakers an hour later with R. H. Ziehm as program chairman.

Thor Tollefson will speak in behalf of Richard Nixon, with Jim Thorpe speaking for Jack Metcalf, candidate for U.S. Senate.

Anthony Chase will speak for his own candidacy for 6th District representative in Congress.

William Goodwin Jr., will represent Gov. Dan Evans, while Reed Bailey will speak for Art Fletcher, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Stanley Worswick will speak for his old boss, Secretary of State A. Ludlow Kramer.

Anne Baird Sherman, candidate for state auditor, and Slade Gorton, running for attorney general, will speak for themselves, as will Marv Tommervik, who is running for county commissioner, District 2.

Anita Jones and Bill Smith, who are running for state representative posts from the district, also will speak.

President Richard Soukup will announce the nominating committee to select club officer candidate for 1969.
