

KEEPING THE PROMISE

To those who are parents, grand-parents, or grate-grand-parents this announcement is for you. If you are in your early or mid-career period years and recognized the need for life long leaning this announcement is for you. Or, if you are in your final years in the workforce its for you also. But, that's not all. If you are a employer, and interested, in hiring well trained, punctual, well trained highly productive workers this announcement is for you. Or, if you are just interested in the quality of the region and the nation's present and future workforce needs, and the role that education, and training plays in filling those needs, this announcement is for you as well.. In fact, it's for everyone, who is interested in America's current and future strength, security, stability, prosperity and future promise.

Keeping the Promise

Spiritually speaking God gave me the following gifts; First the nature of a Shaped. Second, the attitude a Night watchman. Third, a analytical mind. And, fourth, form a speakers stand-point, a uncommon ability to communicate with people of all ages, economic circumstances, social classes, race, gender, ethic background, physical impairment not with standing. Thus, from a life mission stand point, it appears to me that He, equip me to be a spiritual leader, a minister, when my experiences justified it, the environment was ripe and the right moment in time had arrived. It appears to me that the right moment arrived on January 1, 2000, when the 21st Century began.

Successful 35 Year Expiriment With Truth

On December 22, 1965, I took a page form the late great world renow Hindu Spiritual Leader, Mohandus K. Ghanda's Book and conducted my own expiriment with truth. The expiriment began on my birthday December 22, 1965 and I am still involved in it up to this very moment and will continue my expiriment until my journey ends. three decades, the 70s, 80s, and 90s; conducted my own experiment with Truth.
